

Landowner & Citizen Duties

---

In Idaho, landowners have a legal duty to control noxious weeds on their property through prevention, eradication, rehabilitation, or containment, covering associated costs. Failure to comply after a five-day county notice allows the county to manage the weeds and bill the landowner for expenses. Landowners should contact their County Weed Superintendent for identification and management help.

Weeds of Concern in Adams County, ID (and surrounding areas):

- Mediterranean Sage
- Hoary Alyssum
- Orange Hawkweed
- Dyers Woad
- Hoary Cress \(whitetop\)
- Perennial Pepperweed
- Yellow Starthistle
- Diffuse Knapweed
- Spotted Knapweed
- Leafy Spurge